

Renewal Registration Requirements

Brokers who were approved with DC Health Link prior to October 2014 were required to complete the recertification training by October 2016. All currently DCHL registered brokers are required to complete the recertification training two years after they were initially approved. For broker recertification click here.